Robbie Freeman Shugart

Robbie Freeman Shugart is an author, retired teacher and coach. As a native Texan, she was raised with a rich spiritual heritage from a small West Texas fellowship called Trent First Baptist Church. While playing woman's basketball at Abilene Christian University, Robbie's passion for encouraging others to experience God's love and become part of His team was ignited. She enjoys speaking to churches, women's groups and school/sport groups. She loves Jesus and focuses on living one day at a time. Robbie has authored & co-authored several books that will be on display here today.

Stephanie Ellison

Stephanie has been sharing her story since the age of 17 and impacting lives along the way. Stephanie Ellison lives happily with her husband and children in Abilene, Texas. She is passionate about writing, singing, dreaming and helping others in need. Stephanie holds a Master's degree in Counseling and Human Development and serves her community as a Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) and as a Positive Behavior Support Liaison with the local school district. Her goal in life is to be a voice for the voiceless by sharing her personal story of resilience in hopes of communicating that healing is possible and to be a light in the darkness by shining HOPE. She is also the author of "Always Forever".

Karly Byers

Karly lives in Lakeway Texas where she is currently attending seminary online through Liberty University. She is a member of Lake Hills Church and a mother to Aspen and Samuel. Ordained minister of Four Corners Alliance and founder of "Stainglassbutterflies" foundation of hope, an outreach & new beginnings for women seeking a new life absent from abuse. She is author of "MessybutFREE", and holds a Peer Recovery Coach State Certification. Karly loves bringing the light, love, and joy of God to women of all walks of life but has a heart for women who have been hurt and are enduring incarceration.
